

Poole Harbour Watch, Dorset Police and Poole Harbour Commissioners are pleased to invite you to the FREE Security Afloat 2023.

Wednesday 8th February 2023 1800hrs – 2100hrs

North Lounge of the Poole Ferry Passenger Terminal, BH15 4AJ

Free Eventbrite tickets obtainable from Eventbrite page:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/security-afloat-2023-tickets-471010734787>

All boat owners need to protect their boats and marine items by any means they can. The Security Afloat event will give them the knowledge of how to protect their boats and what is on the market.

Police cadets will assist and register all guests

1800 – 1830 guests can visit the Exhibition stands.

1830 – 1930 time to hear the speakers

Welcome from Jacky Hardy, Poole Harbour Watch Chair

Police Crime Commissioner David Sidwick

Assistant Chief Constable Farrell

Marine Policing Team Insp Danny Tamblyn

SelectaDNA – James Brown

Poole Harbour Commissioners Port Control

Datatag – Dave Luscombe

1930 – 2045 guests can revisit the Exhibition stands

Poole Harbour Commissioners Port Control

The Marine Policing Team

Dorset Harbour Port Watch

SelectaDNA – Marine security kit

The RNLI

RNLI Water Safety Advisers – bring your lifejackets along for advice by the RNLI

Quay West Chandlery – Pete Trew

A-Plan Insurance

Datatag – Marine security system

The Maritime Volunteer Service

Dorset Marine Training

Victim Support and Crime Prevention

2045 time to depart

Please come to the event and help demonstrate that Poole Harbour has a strong marine community who are determined to stop crime by securing their boats thus sending a message to the criminal element. Poole Harbour Watch, Poole Harbour Commissioners and the Marine Policing Team are working together to promote and encourage people to secure their boats and to report any marine crime.

Looking forward to meeting you
Jacky Hardy - Chair of Poole Harbour Watch

 Please don't forget to bring your Eventbrite free tickets